Can't Print a Flag Replica

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A sugar refinery was told it cannot print a replica of the Georgia flag on its packages because persons who use the sugar would probably discard the packages, thus defiling the state flag.

The Savannah Sugar Refining Co. had asked whether it could use a picture of the flag on its packages, and Atty. Gen. Arthur Bolton forbid two laws which he says conflicted it.

One forbids use of the flag for promotion or advertising, and the other says it is illegal to mutilate, deface or defile the state flag.

Native to Retire Soon

S. JEROME SMITH

S. Jerome Smith, 62, Real Estate Appraiser for the Fort Worth District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, will retire October 14 after serving 19 years with the Army Engineers.

Smith, a native of Hope, Arkansas, attended the College of the Ozarks, Clarksville, Arkansas. Before joining the Army Engineers' Omaha Division in 1941, he was in real estate and farming. During the two years he was with the Omaha Division, he was instrumental in acquiring the Southwestern Proving Grounds which consisted of about 90,000 acres.

France to Take Turns in Attacks

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — France takes its turn in the U.N. general policy debate today and attacks are expected on some familiar targets: the U.S. role in Vietnam, Israeli actions in the Middle East and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville's speech to the General Assembly seemed certain to follow lines already laid down by President Charles de Gaulle.

De Gaulle says the United States should get out of Vietnam and Israel should yield any Arab soil it won by force of arms last June.

De Gaulle also has hailed France's withdrawal from NATO's military arm as a signal for general relaxation of tension. He pictures the United States and the Soviet Union as hostile giants whose associates must reflect their policies, and claims that by leaving NATO, France "freed herself from such bondage."

So far, Britain has been the only Atlantic partner to support U.S. Vietnam policy in the assembly's policy debate.

Canadian Foreign Minister Paul Martin declared Wednesday that a halt in the U.S. bombing of Communist North Vietnam must be given top priority in any efforts to reduce the Vietnamese war and open the door to peace talks.

"It seems clear that all attempts to bring about talks between the two sides are doomed to failure unless the bombing is stopped," Martin told the assembly.

Special Session in February

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, concluding his 14 regional tours of the state by coming home to Little Rock, said Wednesday that he expected to call a special session of the legislature no later than mid-February.

At a luncheon for legislators and county judges from the central Arkansas area, and again at a public dinner attended by about 300 persons, the governor said he thought the special session would see closer cooperation between his office and the predominantly Democratic General Assembly than there had been during the regular session this year.

Because of that, he said, the special session should last only about two weeks.

Rockefeller was grilled at the luncheon by members of the Pulaski County legislative delegation.

Would he favor a highway bond issue proposal?

Not at this time, the governor said, not until public confidence is restored in the state Highway Department through an independent audit.

Was he now crawlingfish on his opposition to a dam on the Buffalo River?

Supporters of a dam at Gilbert have presented "rather impelling cases," the governor answered, but, no, he still opposes the dam.

"You can always put a dam in later, but it's awful hard to take one out," he said.

Rockefeller said he would remain neutral on the question of selecting a turnpike route until the consulting firm of Wilbur Smith and Associates completed its study of some 1,200 miles of potential turnpike corridors.

He said he would let the turnpike chips "fall where they may, based on Wilbur Smith's recommendations."

Beulah Also Is Trouble Politically

By GARTH JONES

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Hurricane Beulah not only scourged Texas with winds, tornadoes and floods—the mighty storm also ripped wide open the chasm that separates Gov. John Connally and the state's senior senator, Ralph Yarborough.

The political squall burst forth in a congressional committee's trip to investigate Hurricane Beulah's devastation. It left the committeemen groggy.

"They got caught in something they didn't expect and never really knew what hit them," said one of the corps of federal agency officials brought to Texas with the House public works subcommittee.

The two-day survey and hearings in the disaster area ended Tuesday with the controversy between Yarborough and Connally, both Democrats, easily the most spectacular and perhaps the most lasting product of the expedition from Washington.

The feuding between Connally and Yarborough is years old but had been kept somewhat muffled since President Johnson became the chief executive.

Johnson and Connally are old friends. Johnson and Yarborough were often at political odds in past years. When the late President John F. Kennedy came to Texas in 1963 on the tour which ended in his assassination, Yarborough at first declined to ride in the same motorcade car with Johnson, then vice president, Kennedy aides finally persuaded him to do so in Dallas.

Since Johnson became President, the senator has supported him and they have spoken highly of each other.

On the disaster tour, Yarborough, who was carefully identified time after time by the House group as "an invited guest," did much of the questioning of witnesses and often was the first one to shake a hand at each stop on the tour of trouble spots.

Connally, who had been invited to make the tour with the committee and was listed on the official agenda as the first hearing witness, never appeared. Instead, he went about his own inspection tour of Beulah's ravages.

THOMAS SIMMONS

Calvary Baptist Church welcomes their new pastor this Sunday. Thomas S. Simmons, a native of Florida, comes to Hope from Embouse, Texas where he has been pastor for 18 months. Prior to that, he has held pastorates in Missouri, Florida and Georgia.

He is presently a student at Dallas Theological Seminary, where he will receive his Master of Theology Degree in May. Bro. Simmons was graduated from the University of Tampa and has attended Midwestern Theological Seminary at Kansas City, Missouri.

Bro. Simmons is married to the former Norma (Bunny) Thomas of Tampa. They have no children. Mrs. Simmons also attended the University of Tampa. She is presently employed as Reserve Librarian at the Seminary.

Bro. Simmons plans to develop a ministry of the exposition of the Word of God. He says, "I believe that the Bible has the answers to the heart needs and longings of all people. Jesus Christ is the hope of the world and the Bible is a revelation of Him. Only through an application of the teaching of the Word of God to the individual life, can real maturity and peace be found."

Beginning this Sunday night, Bro. Simmons will begin an exposition of First John. During Training Union for Adults for quarter, he will be bringing a series of studies on "Difficult passages of the Bible." This Sunday evening he will discuss Acts 2:38. "Repent and be baptized for the remission of sins."

In the morning messages Bro. Simmons will bring a series of sermons from the Psalms. "How to face the Problems of Life." Calvary Baptist Church invites the public to all of her services. The street in front of the church is being rebuilt, but that will soon be finished. Access is now available over recently opened West Avenue A.

Services are: Sunday School, 9:30. Morning Worship - 11:00. Training Union - 6:30. Evening Worship - 7:30. The church is located at 1201 West Ave. B.

Burglars Hit Mena Bank, Supermarket

MENA, Ark. (AP) — Burglars broke into the Planers National Bank here Wednesday night, but Sheriff Hobart Hensley of Polk County said it wasn't known whether they got any money.

Hensley said burglars also broke into a supermarket here during the night and escaped with about $180 in cash and about $120 in checks. He said he believed the same burglars were responsible for both incidents.

Meanwhile, authorities were searching an area in Texas just across the Arkansas border near Texarkana for two men who abandoned a car answering the description of an auto Hensley said was in Mena Wednesday night.

He said the men jumped from the car after they were spotted by officers and ran into some woods.

The sheriff said two men driving a similar car in Mena checked into a motel here Wednesday night and left early today.

He said the burglars entered the bank by a back door and tried to cut into the vault with an acetylene torch. He said it wasn't known whether they entered the vault because they damaged the locking mechanism and bank officials were unable to open the door this morning to see if anything was missing.

CAMPA is 900 dairy farmers like Willard Russell

"Operating a dairy farm in today's competitive economy presents a tremendous challenge. Through two decades our marketing organization, CAMPA has helped dairymen meet this challenge, and assure consumers a constant supply of Grade A milk," says Willard Russell of Lonoke County.

Hundreds of dairy farmers like Willard Russell have substantial investments in land, cows and capital equipment with which to supply you, the consumer, with an adequate supply of wholesome, nutritious milk. They deliver thousands of gallons each day in their own (CAMPA) tanks to processing plants throughout Arkansas, assuring a steady supply of fresh milk at all times.

For a dependable source of high quality milk, you can depend on the dairy farmers of Arkansas — OWNERS OF CAMPA!

The new kitchen is a block-and-a-half long and can turn out 5,000 steaks in 20 minutes in a giant oven. Twelve-foot racks in the oven work on a Ferris-wheel arrangement.

home of Mrs. E. H. Stewart.

The discussion of the well-written book was warmly received. Club President Mrs. R. L. Broach welcomed Mrs. Charles Rounton, a former member, and Mrs. Everett Vinson into the club membership. During the business session yearbooks were distributed.

Mrs. Stewart and her co-hostess.

Mrs. F. M. Horton, had decorated the home with magnolia branches and red pyracantha berries. They served a salad plate and coffee to 19 members and one guest, Mrs. Stan Harris of Houston.

PEO MEETING

Mrs. Ray Lawrence and Mrs. W. O. Beene were hostesses for a meeting of Chapter AE, P.E.O., Tuesday, September 26 in the Lawrence home. Twenty-one members and two guests, Mrs. Stan Harris of Houston and Mrs. Everett Vinson, heard a most interesting program by Mrs. Paul Rawson entitled "A Trip To England." To illustrate her talk Mrs. Rawson used photographs she had taken on her recent trip.

Roses decorated the place of meeting, where the chapter president, Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. presided over the routine business session. During the refreshment hour the hostess served a salad plate and coffee, using a pretty autumn color theme for the plate.

MOTHER NEEDS HELP

Dear Helen:
I'm a 17-year-old boy with a mother problem, but not the kind you think. She's obsessed with sex. She even makes me blush sometimes. Anyone who happens to displease her, she accuses of having a sex problem. She even makes up stories I know aren't true. She suspects every boy and girl I know.

Episcopalians Have Some New Paths

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

AP Religion Writer
SEATTLE (AP) — After 11 hard-paced days of words, worship and work, the Episcopal Church today had some new paths staked out for its operations—both in the sanctuary and in the slums.

"It was a most constructive and heartening convention," the Rt. Rev. John E. Hines, the Church's presiding bishop, said at the conclusion Wednesday of its triennial governing convention.

Its keynote, he told a news conference, was "reform and renewal, in good solid proportion."

In the reforming process, the 3.5-million-member Church opened its doors wider on several fronts, including:

It expanded the room for free theological inquiry, shoving into the background the old system for juridical control, and making heresy trials almost impossible.

It opened its coffers to divert $3 million annually for crisis projects in urban slums, enlisting Negro leadership, a venture drawing indications from many religious leaders of growth into a larger, interfaith effort.

It accorded women the right to serve along with men in the Church's legislative body.

It broadened its Christian unity efforts, authorizing its representatives to move ahead in developing a proposed plan for union with nine major Protestant denominations, and to press for closer relations with Roman and Orthodox Catholics.

It extended a welcome to all baptized Christians to share in Communion, the Lord's Supper, in Episcopal churches, where permitted by their own churches.

It opened its seminary training system to wide-scale review and reform, with a new board set up to carry out the long-range undertaking.

It cleared the way for "trial use" in the Church's 7,500 parishes of a new Communion service, a revision of the central portion of the historic Book of Common Prayer.

It opened the role of distributing Communion to laymen—a task previously confined to priests and deacons.

It brought youth representatives into deliberations, although they had no official status, and assured them of future inclusion in church decision-making.

It enhanced the title and tasks of its presiding bishop, making him officially the church's "chief pastor," and spelling out more fully his prerogatives in guiding the Church and serving as its spokesman.

Wants Him to Bring Engine
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Georgia Agriculture Commissioner Phil Campbell has sent a telegram to Tennessee Gov. Buford Ellington thanking him for agreeing to speak Sunday at a national convention of agriculture officials in Atlanta.

But Campbell added this note to his telegram: "As long as you're coming, why don't you just stop by Chattanooga, crank up the General and drive it down here so we can enshrine it in its proper place."

homosexuality and "odd" people. In fact, every conversation she has usually ends up on the subject of sex.

Can anything get her off this kick?—HORRIFIED
Dear Horrified:

You or your father might, if you'd tell her this sex talk doesn't make her sound sophisticated, but only disgusting. I doubt there's an obsession here, but rather a juvenile urge to prove she's "modern." If she were age-10, she'd be scribbling four-letter words on bathroom walls.

Dear Helen:
I'll bet the problems you print are made up by your writers. I'll also bet you're a little old lady in tennis shoes who has to spend a couple of hours a week with the headshrinker or they'd carry you off to the giggle farm.

—JOSEPHINE
Dear Josie:

And I'll bet you wrote that to all the columnists, hoping one would snap at your bait. Sorry to disappoint you, but I have no writers, no tennis shoes and no "headshrinker." True, I'm "a little old" by your standards, being over 30, but I'll bet I can still arm-wrestle you right down to the table.

Now, chum, send me your REAL problem.—H.

Dear Helen:

When my best friend Kathy moved away, we started writing to each other. I told her I was going with a boy named Jerry, when I really wasn't; because she had a boyfriend, and I didn't want to own up I didn't. My other friend who lives here knows Jerry and knows I'm not going with him, but she doesn't know what I told Kathy.

Now Kathy is coming back to live and if she finds out I lied, I'll just die! What can I do?—REGRETFUL SINNER
Dear R.S.:

Try truth. I'll bet a steady bracelet to an SOS button you'll find out Kathy also exaggerated a bit about her "boyfriend."—H.

Dear Helen:
I'm a naturally dark brown-haired guy of 16. But every summer my hair bleaches a bright blonde on top from the sun, making me a summer two-tone.

Back at school I'm constantly ribbed about bleaching my hair. They won't believe I'm sun-faded. Please come up with a good solution, and no dye!—SUMMER BLOND
Dear S.B.:

A "solution" probably caused your problem: Chlorinated pools plus hot sun often turn dark hair light, and light hair slightly green. Stop worrying. You have lots of company.—H.

Dear Helen:
I am going steady with a girl whose parents don't allow her to date. I was thinking of breaking up with her but I can't because I'm crazy about her. I have 25 days more to wait until I get my driver's license and then we can have some real fun, except I'm having trouble getting a job because my hair is long. I like her and I know she likes me, but what can we do for some excitement in this city. How should I cope with my problem?—F.C.
Dear F.:

Get organized, and take it from the top: Which problem?—H.

Chicago Is Almost Out of Race

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Eddie Stanky's Walking Dead finally appear to have died, stricken with the last lethal blows from a most unexpected source.
Poised to seize the lead in the daffy American League pennant race Wednesday night, the Chicago White Sox instead tumbled to fourth place, just an eyelash away from elimination.
The villains were the usually harmless Kansas City Athletics, whose lease to the cellar has been locked up for weeks. The A's swept a twilight doubleheader from the White Sox 5-2 and 4-0, leaving Chicago with nothing more to hope for than a slim chance of forcing a playoff.
Front-running Minnesota bowed to California 5-1 and Boston dropped its second straight to Cleveland 6-0 Wednesday afternoon. Detroit was idle. That meant that when the White Sox took the field against the A's, they were a mere one-half game behind the Twins and led the three other contenders in the mortal loss column.
Less than six hours later, they were on the brink of being completely out of the picture. The double loss left them with an 89-67 record and a maximum possibility of 92 victories if they sweep their three remaining games against Washington.
Minnesota has already won 91 and Boston 90. Those two teams play their last two games against each other. If they split, Chicago must sweep to tie Minnesota. If Boston wins both games, a White Sox sweep would tie the Red Sox. If Minnesota wins both games, the White Sox are through, regardless of what they do.
In the National League, San Francisco beat New York 7-2 and Houston edged Philadelphia 1-0 and Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 1-0.
It was a characteristic of hitting that did the Sox in. Ty managed just seven hits in the doubleheader and that, Virginia, is not the kind of attack that wins pennants.
Jim Gosger's three hits drove in three runs for the A's and Chuck Dobson handcuffed the Sox on two hits until the ninth inning of the opener. Then Chicago pushed across both its runs but Paul Lindblad pitched out of the jam and saved Dobson's 10th victory.
Jim (Catfish) Hunter won his 13th in the nightcap, allowing just three hits and started Kansas City's winning four-run rally in the sixth inning with a single.
"Do I think we have a chance?" asked Stanky, the White Sox manager. "How do I answer that?"
"I've been in baseball 30 years. I've seen seven runs in the last of the ninth this year. I've seen a winning streak of 10. I've seen us first place. I've seen us in sixth place."
"We win three and I'm happy. I'm paid to manage the White Sox 162 games, or more, if necessary."
The Angels, who finish the season with four games against Detroit, hopped on ex-teammate Dean Chance and stunned the Twins. It gave California two victories in the three game series with the league leaders.
Don Mincher, a former Twin, started a four-run fourth inning against Chance with his 22nd home run of the year. Chance, working with just two day's rest, blamed himself.
"I blew it," he said, "nobody but me. I just made some bad pitches—high pitches. There's an excuse for it. If it costs us the pennant, I'll have something to think about all winter."
Ermer, Minnesota's manager, was glad to be finished with California. "I think the Angels will be tough on Detroit," he said. "They sure were tough on us."
Three Cleveland pitchers stymied Boston on five hits and catcher Jim Azcue exulted, "we put the nail in the coffin." After the Indians blanked the Red Sox.
Rookie Mike Schepblum smashed three hits, scored three runs and drove in another. Azcue had six hits and two RBIs.

Giants Make Move But a Month Late

By RON RAPAPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The San Francisco Giants are making their move—about a month too late.
The lineal descendants of the perpetrators of the 1961 comeback from 13½ games back to the pennant suddenly are as hot a team as there is to be found in baseball. Trouble is, the season ends this weekend, effectively preventing another miracle.
The Giants beat the Mets 7-2 Wednesday with Willie McCovey hitting a grand-slam homer, his second bases-loaded shot in four days, and Willie Mays belting a solo blast. Mays had two on Tuesday—he has 22 for the season—and McCovey also hit one in that game.
Another event of note in the game was Mike McCormick's 21st victory. Certain to get attention in the balloting for Comeback Player of the Year, McCormick became the winningest Giant left-hander since Johnny Antonelli won 21 games in 1954, also a pennant-winning year for the Giants.
In other National League games Wednesday, Houston shut out Philadelphia 1-0 in 11 innings and Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 1-0. St. Louis at Chicago and Atlanta at Cincinnati were rained out.
In the American League, Cleveland beat Boston 6-0, California topped Minnesota 5-1 and Kansas City took two from Chicago 5-2 and 4-0.
McCovey's homer, his 30th, came off Tug McGraw in a six-run third-inning outburst. Mays hit his 564th lifetime shot in the fifth.
The Giants are now 9½ games behind St. Louis, as close as any team has been to the Cards, who clinched the pennant long ago, in recent memory. The Cards took the news calmly.
Jim Bunning of the Phillies and Mike Cuellar of the Astros were locked in a brilliant pitching duel until the 11th when Rusty Staub doubled with two out and scored on Chuck Harrison's single. Both pitchers allowed six hits.
Bob Yeale stopped the Dodgers on five hits and the Pirates got the only run of the game in the fourth inning when Roberto Clemente followed Matty Alou's triple with a single.

PITCHING — Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Athletics, shut out the Chicago White Sox on three hits as Kansas City beat Chicago 4-0 and completed a sweep of a doubleheader. The A's won the first game 5-2.
BATTING — Willie McCovey, Giants, hit a grand-slam home run, leading San Francisco to a 7-2 triumph over the New York Mets.
Hams the first two he pitched to, ending a bases-loaded none out threat in the Red Sox sixth.
Dick Williams, Boston's manager, said his team was "trying too hard" and that the pressing was hurting them.
"You couldn't blame them," said Williams. "They've been so close all year and it's so near the end."

Brundage Is Bustling for the Amateurs

CHICAGO (AP) — Avery Brundage celebrated his 80th birthday today, still bustling as the world's No. 1 champion of amateur athletics.
President of the International Olympic Committee since 1952, Brundage is still a strapping figure of a man who never let tremendous business success interfere with his rigid concept of amateurism.
"I can't believe I've reached 80, but the record book makes it official," Brundage told The Associated Press. "I'll probably have to behave like an 80-year-old, but I don't know how to do anything else except work."
Brundage, who strides like a soldier and has a handshake as crunching as a nutcracker, took time off from his around-the-clock office routine to attend a party in his honor by employees of the La Salle Hotel which he owns.
Friday night, the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry throws another birthday party for the first American ever elected president of the International Olympic Committee. A University of Illinois graduate as a civil engineer, Brundage prospered in construction and real estate.
But foremost on his tacit mind is the 1968 Olympics at Mexico City where he conceivably may be re-elected for another four-year term as IOC president.

Not Sure He Was Best in Penn Game

By TOM STUCKEY
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Rob Taylor, Associated Press College Football Lineupman of the Week, isn't sure Saturday's contest with Penn State was his best game ever.
The tall red-haired Midshipman said he "was just lucky enough to get open once in a while" — like about 10 times for 140 yards and two last-quarter touchdowns which helped Navy to a 23-22 victory over Penn State.

Thinks Hope Will Lose to Malvern

Fort Smith Northside, top-ranked in the Associated Press Arkansas High School Football Poll, takes another step along what must be the roughest Class AAA schedule in the state.
The Grizzlies entertain sixth-ranked Springdale, an unbeaten team that features tailback Steve Brown.
Northside coach Bill Stancil would never let his players look ahead, but the Grizzlies schedule from here on looks like this: Little Rock Central, Hot Springs, Texarkana, Little Rock Hall, Little Rock Horace Mann, North Little Rock and Fort Smith Southside. Five of those seven are, or have been, ranked in the top 10.
But, back to this week's problem. Brown has scored 11 touchdowns in four games for Springdale, but he'll be up against one of the best defenses in the state Friday night. The Grizzlies also have a group of talented backs. Although this is the perfect spot for an upset, Northside is the choice. Northside 14, Springdale 6.
Arkansas High of Texarkana goes to Fayetteville in a Class AAA Western Division game. It will be Texarkana's first game against an Arkansas team. Fayetteville upset Fort Smith Southside last week. Texarkana 13, Fayetteville 7.
North Little Rock journeys to El Dorado and must win to stay in the Class AAA Central Division race. El Dorado is always tough on the Wildcats. North Little Rock 14, El Dorado 10.
Last week's percentage was .691.
Other AA and AAA forecasts around the state:

LSU Player Surprised in Many Ways

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Louisiana State University sophomore fullback Eddie Ray, who leads the nation's collegiate football players in punting, is respected by his Tiger teammates more for his blocking than for his kicking.
Ray averaged 49.3 yards with six punts in LSU's 20-14 comeback victory over Rice last Saturday night. The punting average surprised Coach Charles McClendon.
But McClendon was not at all surprised that Ray turned in an outstanding performance clearing the way for LSU ball carriers.
"He's a butt-er," said McClendon of his unheralded youngster from Vicksburg, Miss. "By that, I mean he really butts people."
Senior quarterback Nelson Stokley, who benefitted most Saturday night from Ray's crisp blocking, had nothing but praise for the sophomore, who won a starting job at fullback over several veterans.
"He was tremendous on the option," said Stokley, who gained 95 yards on the ground. "Eddie's real good and he's going to get better."
Viewing the game film, McClendon stopped the projector to show how Ray knocked a Rice defender flat on his back with a driving shoulder block, opening a big hole for Stokley to scamper through.
"That's just one example," the coach said. "He did that all night."

San Diego State overwhelmed Weber State 58-12 last week and easily retained its No. 1 ranking today in The Associated Press small college football poll.
San Diego received 12 first place votes from the AP panel of 18 sports writers and broadcasters for a commanding edge of 58 points over Tennessee State, which replaced North Dakota State in the runner-up spot.
San Diego polled 153 points over-all on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis compared to 95 for Tennessee State, which beat North Carolina A&T 35-0 last week.
The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis:
1. San Diego St. (12) 153
2. Tennessee St. (1) 95
3. Arkansas St. (2) 69

Porks Polish Up for the Hurricane

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas coach Frank Broyles said the Razorbacks would drill for 70 minutes today with a "little more polishing up" for Saturday's non-conference game against Tulsa's Golden Hurricane.
The Razorbacks worked out in pads for two-hours Wednesday with the temperature near 50 degrees, and Broyles said the cool weather "pepped up the practice a little."
"We knew our assignments a lot better today," Broyles said. "But we have a little more polishing up to do tomorrow."
The Porks concentrated mostly on moving the ball on the ground, as a strong wind hampered punting and passing. Offensive tackle Ernest Ruple was stunned momentarily during the scrimmage, but was ready to go again after five minutes of rest.

Shinnick Is Pro Players of Week

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Don Shinnick of Baltimore, who has intercepted more passes than any linebacker in National Football League history, has been named defensive Player of the Week in the NFL by The Associated Press for his play in Sunday's game with Philadelphia.
The 32-year-old veteran of 11 pro seasons picked off two passes against the Eagles to run his lifetime total to 35. However, he never has run one back for a touchdown and does not expect to.
"If I coach when I'm through playing," Shinnick told NFL publicist Don Weiss, "I'm going to tell my linebackers to fall down or run out of bounds after they get an interception."
"A linebacker isn't trained to run with the ball. He barely has time, if he's concentrating on his defense, to practice catching it. How many times have you seen a linebacker intercept a pass, run a few yards, get hit and fumble the ball back to the other team?"
Shinnick got the ball back twice for the Colts in the 38-6 victory over Philadelphia. He brought back the first interception three yards, giving Baltimore field position at the Eagles' 40. The second interception came in the third period with Baltimore leading 14-6 and the Eagles on the move toward a TD that might have put them back in the game.
Pat Fischer, the St. Louis Cardinals' little cornerback, was a big man in his club's upset of Pittsburgh. Fischer intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble, all in Pittsburgh territory, during the first 20 minutes of play. The interceptions led to the Cards' only touchdown and a field goal as they opened up a 16-0 lead.
Association, and last spring received the highest honor conferred in his field — induction into the Helms Athletic Foundation Trainers' Hall of Fame.
Ferrell played on a state championship schoolboy football team in South Norfolk, and also was an outstanding baseball catcher. He lettered in football, baseball and wrestling from 1929-31 at William and Mary.

Hog Trainer Loses Bout With Leukemia

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — William R. "Bill" Ferrell lost his three-year battle with leukemia Wednesday.
The University of Arkansas athletic trainer died at a hospital here at the age of 58.
Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles, one of the four head coaches under whom he had served since joining the staff in 1950, said Ferrell was "one of the greatest men I've ever known."
"This is a loss I can't express in words," Broyles said. "In all my years of collegiate athletics, I've never known a man more respected by players and coaches alike than Bill Ferrell."
"We looked to him for his professional guidance, his strength and his encouragement. He was one of a kind."
The other coaches under whom Ferrell served were Otis Douglass, who brought him to Arkansas from Drexel Tech, Bowden Wyatt and Jack Mitchell.
The South Norfolk, Va., native was a past district representative of the National Trainers

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Thirty or so deaths are caused each year in the United States by allergic reaction to bee or wasp stings, says The World Almanac. This toll compares with 14 deaths from poisonous snake bites. Allergic symptoms have been recorded since ancient times. Egyptian hieroglyphic tablets indicate that King Menes died from a hornet's sting nearly 5,000 years ago.

Winter Prevents Canoe Trip
INUUVIK, Northwest Territories (AP) — Luther Meyers, 71, a retired San Francisco newspaperman, has returned to Inuvik, prevented by the approaching Arctic winter from completing a 2,700-mile solo canoe trip.

Meyers was halted by snow, 200 miles short of his goal, at Reindeer Station on the Mackenzie River.

He set out in a 17-foot plastic canoe June 21 from Summit Lake, 40 miles north of Prince George, B.C., and followed the Crooked, Parsnip, Peace and Slave rivers to Great Slave Lake. Then he pushed north on the Mackenzie.

A GLIMPSE AT THE PAST is easier for Colleen Moore than for many of her generation as she looks at an old print of "Lilac Time," at left, in which she starred with Gary Cooper in 1928. A bright young comedienne in the '20s, she is now Mrs. Homer Hargrave, touring the country searching for historical old silent movies. She is shown at right returning from a European vacation in 1925 at the height of her movie career.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Best Play Is Not Super
By Oswald & James Jacoby
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Jeff Rubens of New York is one of the best of the young group of bridge players who have cropped up in the last few years. He is also a most ingenious writer and composer of bridge hands.

Today's hand shows his illustration of an attempt by West to let his partner get into the lead with South foiling all West's attempts.

In any place except Jeff's fertile brain West would open the king of hearts and continue with the ace. An alert South would discard a diamond on that second heart.

Later, he would be able to set up dummy's diamonds to discard both his clubs and wind up making five odd unless West were smart enough to cash his ace of clubs right away.

Jeff explains that even if West is smart enough to see what can happen, South will still be able to make that same loser on loser play. Suppose West shifts to a trump at trick two. South wins in dummy and is careful to hang onto his deuce. Then he leads dummy's nine of hearts. East is also alert. He rises with the queen and South must trump. Once more South saves his deuce of trumps for later.

A second trump to dummy allows South to lead the jack of hearts. East can't cover and South gets to discard one diamond. Once more all that West can do is to cash his ace of clubs and save the over-trick, because dummy's three of spades is still an entry.

All this give and take illustrates expert bridge at its superb but not superexpert bridge at its superduper best.

In that supergame West would open a low heart. East would be in with the queen to lead back a club and South would never have his chance to get diamonds running in time.

Allergy May Be Factor In Some Migraine Cases
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—What is scintillating scotoma?
A—This is the technical term for the shimmering zig-zag interference with your vision that lasts about 45 minutes and ushers in an attack of migraine.

Q—Does allergy cause migraine headaches?
A—In some persons allergy appears to be a causative factor. When the offending allergen—usually a food—can be discovered and avoided these persons have no more attacks.

Q—My doctor says I have migraine. Pain pills don't help. What can I do to prevent these attacks?
A—Methysergide (Sansert) has proved successful in the prevention of migraine. It must be taken under medical supervision.

Q—I have had migraine headaches since I was about nine. Will I ever outgrow them?
A—In most persons the attacks grow less frequent and less severe after 50. They may then even disappear completely.

Q—Our son has had some fatty tumors under his skin removed. Could exposure to X rays or too much fat in his diet cause them?
A—There is no evidence that these tumors are caused by diet, X rays or anything else except a developmental abnormality.

Q—I have had a painless lump on my back for five years. It is soft and about the size of an olive. Could this be cancer? What treatment would you advise?
A—Since the lump is soft, it is not cancerous. It could be a lipoma (fatty tumor) or a wen. If it bothers you it can be removed surgically. Otherwise leave it alone.

Q—My doctor says I have aldosteronism. What is this? Is there any cure?
A—Aldosteronism is a hormone secreted by the adrenals. It plays an important part in your adjustment to warm weather since it regulates the salt and water balance in your body. Aldoster-

Poisoning Was Too Much
COVINA, Calif. (AP) — Teddie, the 10-year-old heroic dog revived by mouth-to-mouth resuscitation after suffering a heart attack Monday, is dead.

His master, Cliff McAdams, said Tuesday a pet hospital told him Teddie succumbed to uremic poisoning, the pain of which McAdams, Sunday magazine and travel editor of the San Gabriel Valley Tribune, applied heart massage and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation when Teddie showed signs of death.

The dog regained consciousness. McAdams and his sister Mary took Teddie to the Hollywood Pet Cemetery, where attendants buried the friend who saved the family's lives four years ago by barking when leaking gas filled their home during the night.

"Crystal Day"
Observances in November of 1958 marked the 20th anniversary of the Nazi onslaught on Jewish synagogues in Germany. This day became known as "Crystal Day" because of the many glass and crystal objects that were shattered.

Boston Can No Longer Lecture South on Race

Being Northern-born your editor has avoided commentary on the racial issue in the South, leaving it to be decided by native Southerners. But Northerners' persistent policy of making the South a whipping-boy is so unjust that even an ex-Northerner is bound to speak up. Nowhere has the South been so castigated as in New England. But when racial disturbances left the South and moved North this same New England promptly ate its words and assumed the mien and stance of a gent, from Dixie.

The leader in question is actually a lady, not a gent—Mrs. Louise Day Hicks, outspoken member of the Boston School Committee. In a school board election Mrs. Hicks opposed moving Negro students across town just to attend white schools, and the voters of Boston re-elected her overwhelming, demolishing the civil rights ticket. Then Mrs. Hicks decided to run for mayor.

Boston held its municipal primary election Tuesday and guess what?—Mrs. Hicks led all 10 candidates in the field, running 4 to 3 over her nearest opponent.

The South has its faults—but it lacks the one most prized in Boston . . . lecturing a land 1,000 miles distant for bad social conduct, and then putting on a performance remarkably identical when the crisis appears in its own front yard.

The voters of Boston have spoken—not once, but twice. As Emerson said:

"What you are speaks so loud that I can not hear what you say."

Rent Pledge Not Nearly Enough

By JACK MILLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — It's going to take a lot more investment than the $1 billion the life insurance industry has pledged for slum development if the fledgling rent supplement program is to grow into a major operation to provide poor people with decent housing.

The $32 million-a-year program now authorized could soak up half the $1 billion in promised mortgage money, says Philip J. Maloney, deputy commissioner of the Federal Housing Administration.

In announcing the investment plan Sept. 13, insurance industry spokesmen said priority would be given to rent supplement projects.

The Senate voted last week to give the administration the additional $40 million it asked, which would make $72 million available each year to pay rent supplements.

But an earlier House bill provided no new funds. The matter now goes to a conference committee.

Maloney said in response to a reporter's inquiry that expansion of the program would create a need for much more private mortgage money. Without setting a figure, he said if the money were not forthcoming, the program again could be in trouble.

Before the life insurance money was pledged, the program was not doing well. Federal officials said about two-thirds of the sponsors of projects couldn't get private financing. The government pumped in federal funds and opposition grew in Congress.

The Senate Appropriations Committee proposed that if a rent supplement project were financed with federal funds the sponsor would have to put up five per cent of the project cost. Most sponsors are nonprofit groups such as churches and labor unions.

President to View Flood Area

By JACK KEEVER
HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — Floodwaters continued to rise in this lower Rio Grande Valley city today as President Johnson prepared to fly to the hurricane-and flood-devastated area for an inspection.

The Arroyo Colorado, massive diversionary channel of the Rio Grande, dropped slowly while the river edged higher.

Beneath the floodwaters lay more than 800 of this usually sparkling town's finest residences, some wholly submerged.

Families from 50 to 60 homes in less affluent neighborhoods were the latest to be driven out Wednesday night as the runaway Arroyo Colorado made end runs around hurriedly constructed dikes.

Buildover crews threw up new dikes to stem the flow shortly after midnight.

Flooding worsened as water shot in small geyers from overtaxed storm sewers. Engineers said the waters of the Arroyo, into which rainfall usually drains, were backing into the city because there was nowhere else to go.

More businesses suffered and more streets were awash.

The Air Force rushed a team of airlift experts, 22 officers and men, from Dyess Air Force Base near Abilene, Tex. Tactical Air Command units at Langley Field, Va., and at Forbes, Lockbourne, Pope, Edwards and Dyess AFBs were ordered to stand by for airlift of refugees from the area.

C130s at Forbes were ready to take off.

Gov. John B. Connally, who planned to meet President Johnson in Austin today with a formal request for federal aid, ordered 300 additional National Guardsmen to join 600 already on duty in the stricken areas.

Red Cross, Salvation Army, 4th Army and Texas Department of Public Safety disaster and relief crews, tired from days of turmoil unleashed by Hurricane Beulah and the subsequent floods, stayed on the job to care for refugees and direct evacuations.

As more water flowed in late Wednesday night, Mayor George Young told Harlingen residents via radio and television, "We'll be in jeopardy for another three days . . . With a little bad luck, we could be in another nasty mess."

"One of the things that could happen," Young said, was for rain to fall upstream. As he spoke, light showers peppered Laredo, 180 miles up the Rio Grande. There also was fresh rainfall on the stream's watershed in Mexico.

Anonymous Remarks in Suggestion Box Usually Burn Up Boss

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Anonymous remarks that every boss gets tired of finding in the office suggestion box:

"Did you know that the guy who was boss here before you is alive and doing well in Argentina?"

"We've tried everything else—so why not put some gin in the water cooler and see if THAT'll pep up the office?"

"It has been 23 years since I've had a merit raise. What are you trying to do—set a new course record for stinginess?"

"Roses are red, violets are blue, the senior vice president is a mutthead—and so are you!"

"Little holes can sink the biggest ship, and being wasteful in small ways can wreck a business. For example, I have figured out that every one in the office could retire a year early if they would just use a single paper towel when they wash their hands. Instead of two or three."

"This wouldn't be a bad place for a nice girl to work if only the executives wore boxing gloves. The next one is going to get sprayed with insect repellent—and I'm not joking."

"Hey, boss, I'm one of the cuttest secretaries in the office and I've had a crush on you for

Warns Hike Taxes or Face Inflation

By NEIL GILBRIDE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is in the delicate position of trying to quell fears of inflation at the same time it warns Congress of inflationary consequences that could result if the President's tax hike bill isn't enacted.

Most uncomfortable in this situation are such government economists as Commissioner Arthur M. Ross of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. His agency keeps tabs on prices and Wednesday reported another rise of three-tenths of one per cent in living costs.

While the bureau is scrupulous in reporting the economic facts and staying out of political arguments, officials in the past have tended to play down price hikes as possibly temporary fluctuations rather than warning signs of inflation.

But the emphasis this time was on the likelihood of further increases in both retail and wholesale prices, and Ross even allowed himself to be drawn into giving a plug for Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

"I really don't want to get into that," Ross said at a news conference but then proceeded to answer the question.

"A tax increase would mitigate price pressures," he said.

Ross is only one of several administration officials who have first pointed to the latest economic reports on rising prices, surging production, increased retail sales and the prospect of labor shortages that could bid up wages—and then have endorsed Johnson's tax proposal.

Ross also abandoned the bureau's past hesitancy to raise its earlier prediction that 1967 rises in living costs will total no more than 2.5 per cent.

"I think it will be closer to 3 per cent," Ross said. This would bring 1967 up near the range of last year's sharp rise of 3.3 per cent, the biggest in 10 years.

The August rise of three-tenths of one per cent in living costs brought the bureau's consumer price index to 116.9, up 2.7 per cent so far this year.

This means it cost $11.69 last month to purchase typical living necessities worth $10 in the 1957-59 base period.

Wholesale prices went up for rubber, steel, copper, machinery, lumber and petroleum products, the bureau said.

By WALTER R. MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators, quietly at work in cities across the nation, have found no evidence of a national conspiracy behind outbreaks of violence—but believe there is "a loose linkage" among militant Negro leaders.

That preliminary indication is in line with the report of FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to President Johnson's Commission on Civil Disorders.

Senate sources disclosing it said there are weeks, perhaps months of investigation about the inquiry.

Hoover appeared before the President's antiriot commission Aug. 1 and said that on the basis of his knowledge of 52 riots in the past three years, he found no indications of a conspiracy. But he did say there were indications outside agitators were involved in some of these disturbances.

David Ginsburg, executive director of the commission, said after the FBI chief's appearance that the outside agitation was not something to which Hoover "gave a great deal of weight or with which he was greatly concerned."

As the Senate investigators worked, word came Wednesday from Philadelphia of an alleged plot to start a race riot there this summer which, authorities said, involved a plan to poison hundreds of Philadelphia policemen.

Dist. Atty. Arlen Specter, announcing an arrest in the case, said the plot was the work of members of the Revolutionary Action Movement—RAM—a Negro extremist group. Specter said his own life and those of the mayor and police chief "were to be taken."

RAM members previously have been connected with a conspiracy to kill moderate Negro civil rights leaders and with a plan to blow up the Statue of Liberty and other American monuments.

The Senate, assigning its permanent subcommittee on investigations to undertake an inquiry into racial riots in U.S. cities, set next Monday as the deadline for an interim report.

$214,780 for Development in This Area

The Southwest Arkansas Development Council has received a grant of $214,780 from the Manpower Division of the Department of Labor, according to Mike Carozza, Executive Director of the Southwest Arkansas Development Council.

The grant was announced by telegrams from both Senator William Fulbright and Congressman David Pryor.

The grant is for a Work Experience and Training Program known as Operation Mainstream. The program will train 65 individuals who will be recruited from seven counties including Miller, Hempstead, Lafayette, Howard, Nevada, Little River and Sevier counties.

The trainees will be screened and tested by the Employment Security Division and will be placed in Work Experience Programs which promise full employment upon the completion of the trainee period.

The trainees will be paid $1.40 per hour for 52 weeks. The forty hour week will include thirty-five hours to be devoted to work experience and five hours will be devoted to remedial education where needed. Mr. Carozza said that the program will employ three professionals; a Project Director, a counselor and remedial teacher. Applications for the above positions will be accepted beginning October 1st.

Those interested in work training and remedial education should contact Southwest Arkansas Development Council, Room Two, Miller County Court House. Applicants must qualify as low income families whose net income is less than $3,000 per year. Preference will be given to those 40 years of age and above. The program is open to both men and women and the applicants should contact Southwest Arkansas Development Council as early as possible.

128 Killed in the War Last Week

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes fought nine air battles with swarms of MIG fighters over North Vietnam Wednesday, while the ground war generally slackened and the embattled U.S. Marine post at Con Thien had the lightest day of its month-long artillery siege.

Weekly casualty figures released by the U.S. Command today reflected a lull in the ground war. Last week the United States lost 128 killed and 1,434 wounded, well below the weekly average. Communist losses reported by the U.S. Command for the week were 1,134 dead, also below average.

Most of the American casualties were among the Marines holding positions in the Con Thien area, 2½ miles below the DMZ, against a possible invasion of South Vietnam's northern provinces by 35,000 North Vietnamese troops massed in and near the buffer zone.

Clearing skies enabled American pilots to fly 159 combat missions Wednesday in making a near-maximum effort over the North for the second straight day. The Americans ran into fierce antiaircraft fire and nearly every operational jet the Reds could put in the sky.

Although there were nine dogfights with the MIGs and MIG21s, no planes were reported damaged or downed in these battles. The one loss listed by the U.S. Command was a Marine A4 Skyhawk jet hit by ground fire above the demilitarized zone, the 685th plane downed over North Vietnam. The pilot ejected over the Tonkin Gulf and was rescued.

The American planes, trying to impair North Vietnam's ability to support its ground forces in the South, struck at communications links and supply points. Air Force planes raked Hanoi's rail lines to Red China and an ammunition dump near Hon Gai, the country's second port.

Navy planes from the carriers Constellation, Coral Sea and Intrepid pounded supply routes up and down the coast, and reported hitting a number of barges.

Four Held in Lockesburg Bank Burglary

LOCKESBURG, Ark. (AP)— Sheriff Louie Hilton of Sevier County said today $12,000 to $13,000 was taken Wednesday in the robbery of the Bank of Lockesburg.

Hilton also said he was continuing to hold three men and the wife of one of them, all from Oklahoma, for questioning in the robbery. One man and the woman were being held at the Polk County jail and the other two were transferred to Nashville.

Pros. Atty. Joe Hardegree said he had too little information to file charges in the case, but that he was following developments closely.

Hilton said a lone gunman walked into the bank, forced bank employees and three customers to lie on the floor and ordered bank President R. C. Norwood and his wife to clean out the vault and cash drawers.

He said the man was wearing coveralls and had a woman's stocking over his head.

The sheriff said the man is believed to have escaped in a stolen car, possibly one that was stolen Tuesday at De Queen. He said, however, that a car that had been stolen at Paris, Tex., was found abandoned in the area after the robbery. Hilton said another car that was stolen at Paris was used about two months ago in the robbery of a bank at Dierks 12 miles from here.

The sheriff said he had stopped to question the woman after he saw her while on his way to the bank. With him was Louis Graves, publisher of the Nashville News, who had been driving in the area. Hilton said he handed Graves a pistol and instructed him to take the woman into Lockesburg.

Group Asks $5 Billion Spending Cut or No Income Tax Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has indirectly ordered its Appropriations Committee to present a $5 billion plan for presidential cutting of federal spending if it wants funds for government departments about to run out of money.

The move is the latest in a wrangle between President Johnson and Congress over taxes and spending.

Republicans and some Democrats say Johnson can't win an income tax increase unless he promises beforehand to cut spending.

The Appropriations Committee voted 28 to 21 Wednesday not to include in the temporary appropriations measure a provision directing the President to cut spending this year by at least $5 billion. Later in the day, the House voted 202 to 182 to return the temporary appropriations bill and have the committee reconsider its action.

The committee may meet again today but there was a question whether enough votes could be changed to alter its Wednesday decision. It could work out a compromise to break the deadlock but there was no assurance the Senate would accept a mandatory spending cut.

The Senate already has turned down a House-voted provision to cut spending by five per cent in an earlier measure.

On the vote to return the bill to committee, 168 Republicans and 34 Democrats were on the winning side, while 182 Democrats banded on the losing side in support of the administration. Eighteen Republicans and 31 Democrats did not vote.

Among the Democrats voting with the GOP was Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee. He has insisted that if Johnson is going to have his bill for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge, Congress must first be guaranteed there will be spending cuts.

But Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the Appropriations Committee said this would amount to giving the President "a blank check" and "terrific, unheard of and unprecedented" power.

Mahon said control of the federal purse strings is the responsibility of Congress. "Should we yield our authority—just because we haven't done our job?" he asked.

State Can't Sell Islands

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state can't sell islands formed in navigable waters for less than $1 an acre, the attorney general's office held in an opinion issued Wednesday to Deputy State Land Commissioner Jack N. Fleming.

Fleming said he was continuing to hold three men and the wife of one of them, all from Oklahoma, for questioning in the robbery. One man and the woman were being held at the Polk County jail and the other two were transferred to Nashville.

Pros. Atty. Joe Hardegree said he had too little information to file charges in the case, but that he was following developments closely.

Casualties in Vietnam Near 100,000

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
SAIGON (AP) — The number of Americans killed in the Vietnam war dropped sharply last week but the total of U.S. casualties since the fighting began nearly seven years ago approached 100,000.

An unofficial survey of casualty figures for this year, gave no sign that last week's drop in casualties was part of any long-term decline.

The U.S. Command said 128 Americans were killed during the week, 1,434 were wounded and four were missing. A week earlier, U.S. forces lost 236 killed, 1774 wounded and four missing.

Most of last week's casualties occurred south of the demilitarized zone, where U.S. Marines blocking possible Communist invasion routes to the south have received nearly continuous shelling.

Henry Cabot Lodge, then the U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, had predicted in January that the percentage of U.S. casualties in Vietnam would drop this year.

"I believe the purely military part of the war, which is what the Americans are engaged in, will make tremendous progress in 1967 and that the percentage of American casualties will be cut in half," he told The Associated Press in an interview.

But reports show that the rate of U.S. casualties has increased during the year. By March 31, the Pentagon reported U.S. combat deaths running 66 per cent above average weekly losses in 1966.

The number of Americans killed rose from 67 in the first week of January to a peak for 1967 of 337 killed in the week of May 14-20.

By unofficial tally, 13,493 Americans have been killed in Vietnam and 84,877 wounded, a total for the war of 98,370.

Following are Vietnam casualties from Jan. 1 in four week totals, except for two weeks in September. Figures for wounded were not given until April.

Dead Wounded
Jan. 1—Jan. 28 465 —
Jan. 29—Feb. 25 559 —
Feb. 26—Mar. 25 892 —
Mar. 26—Apr. 22 665 5,197
Apr. 23—May 20 1047 6,306
May 21—June 17 846 5,660
June 18—July 15 892 5,400
July 16—Aug. 12 506 4,147
Aug. 13—Sept. 9 632 5,039
Sept. 10—Sept. 23 364 3,208

Casualty tolls for South Vietnamese, allied and Communist forces also declined last week. South Vietnamese military headquarters said 96 government troops were killed, 380 wounded and 15 missing, compared with 215 killed, 591 wounded and 47 missing a week earlier.

Other allied forces lost 37 killed, 88 wounded and none missing. A week earlier, the total had been 46 killed, 126 wounded and none missing.

The U.S. Command said enemy casualties included 1,134 killed, compared with 1,744 a week before.

ASC Names New County Committeemen

Results of the election of ASC community committeemen for the various communities of the county were announced today by R. B. Arnold, Chairman Hempstead County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. The election was held by mail and ballots were tabulated publicly by the incumbent ASC county committee on September 26 at the ASCS county office.

Farmers elected to the committees include: Springhill-Patterson, T. L. Brint, Chairman, C. P. Jones, Vice Chairman, B. V. Jester, Regular Member, Paul W. McCormack, First Alternate, Mrs. Weaver Atkins, Second Alternate.

So Golden Good

Second Alternate. Fulton-Crossroads, Wade Gilbert, Chairman, R. E. Lively, Vice Chairman, Herbert R. Raley, Regular Member, Wiley M. Dillard, Jr., First Alternate, J. J. Byers, Second Alternate. Washington-Ozan, Moss Rowe, Chairman, Rush Jones, Vice Chairman, B. C. Webb, Regular Member, R. J. Hill, First Alternate, Joel Green, Second Alternate.

Blevins-Sweet Home, Sanford Bonds, Chairman, Guy Loe, Vice Chairman, Carl A. Brown, Regular Member, Z. T. Brooks, First Alternate, Weldon Fulton, Second Alternate.

The ASC community chairman, vice chairman, and third regular member automatically become delegates to the county convention, where farmers are elected to fill vacancies on the ASC county committee. The alternate committeemen become delegates to the convention.

The county convention will be held at Conference Room, Federal-Post Office Building at 9:30 a.m. October 5, 1967. After the county committeemen are elected, the delegates determine which of the regular committeemen will serve as the committee chairman and vice chairman for the coming year.

ASC county and community farmer-committees are in charge of local administration of such national programs as the Agricultural Conservation Program, the Cropland Adjustment Program, the feed grain program, the voluntary wheat program, the upland cotton diversion program, the National Wool program, the Sugar program, acreage allotments and marketing quotas, commodity loans, and storage facility loans.

Each year, local farmers earn thousands of dollars through participation in these farm-action programs. Last year, 625 farmers—50 percent of all the farmers in the county—took part in one or more of the programs administered by the ASC committeemen. Funds disbursed under the committees' supervision amounted to $235,000. Of this amount $23,000 was for price support loans aimed at increasing market returns above what farmers would receive on an unsupported market.

Included in the price support program are such major commodity programs as cotton, grain and soybeans. Last year, also, 13257 acres of farmland in the county were improved under the Agricultural Conservation Program cost-sharing arrangement. This cost $121,000, with about half coming from the participating farmer, and the balance from ACP.

Weather Only Worry to Fighters Now

NEW YORK (AP) — After long, hard training sessions to reach peak condition, middle-weight champion Nino Benvenuti of Italy and Emilio Griffith of New York had to worry about the weather today for their 15-round return title fight at outdoor Shea Stadium tonight.

The forecast for the 10 p.m., EDT, bout was not optimistic. The weatherman's prediction was cloudy and windy with a chance of occasional rain in the evening.

In the event rain forces a postponement, the bout will be held Friday night.

A postponement also would require another weigh-in the day of the fight.

For their first fight last April 27 when Benvenuti dethroned Griffith on a decisive, unanimous decision, the rangy Italian outweighed his foe, 159 to 153 1/2. Benvenuti was a 13-5 underdog as a challenger. He may be the favorite at fight time. In Reno, Nev., the Italian was the 7-5 favorite but in New York it was rated even — 10-11 and pick 'em.

If the weather should turn favorable, Harry Markson, the Garden's director of boxing, predicted a crowd of 35,000 and a gross gate of $300,000.

Both fighters drove in from their training camps in the Catskill Mountains Wednesday and went into seclusion.

a lot of your neighbors have stopped baking pies!

Maybe it's because they discovered Jane Parker Pies...thousands have.

But...you say, "No thanks, there is nothing like a good home-baked pie." We agree...they're great."

But would you believe it if we told you our Jane Parker Pies taste home-baked? Probably not...until you've tried one.

Then you'd discover the crust is short and flaky like your own.

You'd discover the fruit is the kind you'd use... the best...juicy, not stiff with starch.

And if you popped a Jane Parker Pie into the oven and warmed it before serving, you'd discover a pie you'd be proud to call your own.

Are Jane Parker Pies a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.
